Here is a video of SOLIDWORKS Graphics 2018, the version of the software I received. When I opened SOLIDWORKS it gave me the following error and it works fine when I use the Software as a Windows service. I run SOLIDWORKS in compatibility mode. Developer Mode is LEIAE. Microsoft also offers paid subscription to . There are a few other graphics softwares that run in compatibility mode without error. It is likely that some of those programs support Universal Windows applications. LEIAE. Microsoft also offers paid subscription to . There are a few other graphics softwares that run in compatibility mode without error. It is likely that some of those programs support Universal Windows applications. SOLIDWORKS 2019 Latest Version: SOLIDWORKS 2020 Latest Version: SOLIDWORKS 2020 Next Generation Release: Here is the following hard drive just to be safe Here is the . I had the same issue, and I installed a fresh copy of Windows 10 Home. A: From the error message it appears that you don't have the REALVIEW GFX graphic card driver installed. The graphics card cannot run SOLIDWORKS as a Windows service because the driver is not installed. As you said you have tried compatibility mode but that usually does not help, the recommended solution is to fix the driver with the latest realview gfx driver which should help you with that error.
